

LANDU® Learner Agreement

A meaningful education starts with the right foundation. RLI staff and instructors need your assistance to create the best learning experience possible for you and your fellow LANDU® course participants. Therefore, when you register for a LANDU® course you agree to the list below. Please print this agreement and check each item before attending the course.

As a LANDU learner, I agree to:

- Be on time and come prepared ready to learn with course materials open on the computer.
- Actively participate in the course and ask questions to ensure understanding.
- Download course materials from the RLI Education Portal prior to the start of class.
- Carefully read all emails from RLI with updates and instructions for my course.
- Have the technology needed to be successful in the course, including a computer with a reliable internet connection and current version of an Internet browser.
- Have the Zoom app downloaded to my device at least 24 hours prior to start of class. (Our staff is unavailable for Zoom tech support. If you need support, contact Zoom.)
- Have the most recent version of Microsoft Excel downloaded to my computer and ready to use. (I understand that this is a requirement if taking the Land Investment Analysis course and that RLI staff is unavailable for tech support.)
- Give feedback on the post-course survey.
- Not share course materials, test questions, or test answers.
- Complete all required homework assignments to facilitate learning.
